PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

President Jack Bagley

The official start of summer has arrived with the Solstice on June 20.

Summer has already brought many unusual weather patterns... floods, drought, tornadoes, fires and even an invasion of the "once every seventeen years cicadas" in the Mid-Atlantic. Not to mention, hurricanes will soon be on the horizon.

Summer calendars also welcome back the various county and state fairs that are so much a part of America's agriculture traditions. I encourage all our members to participate in the contests and shows that are an integral part of these events. After a year of cancellations, people will be anxious to return to these popular events.

We also want to congratulate the three individuals who were awarded scholarships from the Belted Galloway Foundation. These are outstanding young men who will hopefully be the future leaders of the Belted Galloway Society (see the listing of recipients inside.)

The last issue had a survey about participation in the Annual Meeting at NAILE. There are several new ideas being circulated that will provide some added reasons to attend.

We will have an auction of some exciting travel opportunities to raise funds for the Foundation Scholarship Fund. We will also have a couple of speakers. One will discuss the issues facing the beef industry as a result of Covid-19 related impacts.

Another speaker will discuss potential opportunities for farmers to take advantage of tax credits for carbon sequestration in soils.

NAILE Host Hotel Information:

The Crown Plaza Hotel adjacent to the Kentucky Exposition Center will be the host hotel for this year's National Belted Galloway Show and Annual Meeting events.

A block of rooms are being held starting Sunday, November 14th and ending Thursday, November 18th.

They are offering BGS members a special rate of $134 per night plus tax. This appears to be the lowest rate for any hotel room adjacent to the Exposition Center.

The Crown Plaza was the host hotel for the canceled World Galloway Event and is very unique with luxury amenities and several restaurant options.

More details to come but the hotel can be reached at 502.367.2251.

The purpose was to establish an annual scholarship in his memory available to a member of the Belted Galloway Junior Association or to any other deserving student interested in pursuing a career related to beef production.

The 2021 Annual A.H. Chatfield Jr Memorial Scholarship recipients have been selected!

Luke Daniels, Strasburg, IL
Ashton Caron, Corinna, ME
Sage Borders, Sulphur, OK

These three individuals show dedication to the improvement of the beef industry as well as a strong interest in building the Belted Galloway breed for generations to come. More information about these scholarship winners will be featured in the upcoming Annual Belted Galloway Society Journal.

BELTIES ARE GOING TO CATTLEMEN'S CONGRESS

by Dawson Masters (TX), SBGA President

The Southwest Belted Galloway Association (SBGA) is honored to announce another opportunity to showcase and promote Belted Galloway Cattle at a major event. The SBGA has partnered with the Cattlemen's Congress to include Belted Galloway cattle at their annual event held January for the first time ever. This coming year's event will be held January 1-14, 2022. Although still being finalized, the tentative exhibition date will be Friday January 14, 2022. This annual event is held in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and includes livestock and exhibitors from throughout the United States.

The schedule for the first time ever Belted Galloway Show at the American Royal in Kansas City, MO has been set. Belted Galloway cattle arrive and move in Wednesday October 6 2021 beginning at noon, with a show Friday October 8, 2021 at 8:00 AM.

The SBGA has been working feverishly to bring new avenues for enthusiasts of Belted Galloway Cattle to enjoy, and we sincerely believe these are two world renown, highly prestigious events that we are privileged to be involved with and cordially invite all of interest to come, join in and participate, as either an exhibitor or to maybe just take in the excitement.

GLBGA FIELD DAY

by Terry Willis (IL), GLBGA President

The Annual GLBGA Field Day was held on a sunny but hot Saturday. John Hamm (WI), Wisconsin River Meats, started the day with a talk on direct marketing your Beltie Beef. He talked about and selling meat off the farm, selling through your farm store and at farmer markets. He concluded with a demonstration of different quality ribeye's and how to identify them. Following John Hamm's presentation, Clete Kirschbaum (WI) had a presentation on regenerative agriculture which included what is it, why it is so important, and how to develop a program for your farm. He discussed rotational grazing which was very helpful and informative.

After a fantastic lunch of burgers and brats furnished by Wisconsin River Meats, the Juniors held their showmanship contest. The judge commented on the quality and skill level of all the Juniors involved. He chose the winner from each age division which competed for the Master Showman Award. It was won by Marshall Finke (IN). A special "Thank you" to Uphill Farms and Jerry Stephans (NY) for the belt buckle donations to our showmanship winners. Despite all of the fun we had with the Juniors, the highlight was the adult showmanship contest which was judged by the juniors. They worked the class long and hard, asking many questions of the adult participants. Maybe this was payback? At the end they chose Kim Lohmann (IA) as the top adult show person.

The evening continued with a fantastic meal of ribeyes from John Hamm. Awards were presented to the Juniors and it concluded with the auction to benefit the Area 5 BYG. Col. Jerry Stephans (NY) worked the sale and managed a spirited and active crowd of bidders. The top selling lot was a metal cutout of a Belted Galloway. It was obvious John Hamm did his homework on the lot and was determined to take it home. Thanks to Mike Wagner (IA), the contending bidder, and all the other bidders and buyers of a very successful auction.
